 While these structures are outside of the Historic District boundary, they are of historical significance and are listed in the Ordinance that established the Historic District in 1999. These structures remain on this revised list and remain under the purview of HDRB.

¹Outbuilding at 120 Church Street: This structure was originally listed as 203 Jackson Street NE, which is no longer an address because the house on the property was demolished. Since the outbuilding cannot hold an address and for identification of the remaining outbuilding structure the address is now with the new owner of the property 120 Church Street.

²Lyric Theater (2nd bldg.) at 135 College Avenue: The address changed from 117 College Avenue to 135 College Avenue.

³Alexander Black House at 204 Draper Road SW: This structure was relocated from 204 South Main Street to 204 Draper Road SW.

⁴Logan Martin House #1 at 143 Jackson Street NE: This structure was originally named Logan Martin House #2 but after comprehensive research and per DHR the historic named was changed to Logan Martin House #1. It should be noted that Logan Martin House #2, located at 147 Jackson Street NE, is a historic, non-contributing (because of alterations) structure within the Blacksburg Historic District Overlay.

⁵Spencer-Johnson House at 304 Jackson Street NE: For historical purposes it should be noted that the address at this location was 304 Jackson Street NE in 1999, but was changed to 409 Jackson Street between 1999 and 2010. Staff has corrected this address error and has contacted the owner with the correct address of 304 Jackson Street NE.

⁷Bertram Cromer House at 421 Lee Street SE: The address changed from 203 Lee Street SE to 421 Lee Street SE.

⁸Farmers and Merchants Bank at 205 N. Main Street: Staff moved the second listing to “Additional Information on 1999 Adopted Contributing Structures” list because, after comprehensive research, there was no record of a second structure on the property. Staff believes that this had a duplicate listing because there were two surveys on record, one of which was incomplete and invalid.

⁹Blue Ribbon Café at 302 N. Main Street: There was originally two separate addresses for this structure 302 N. Main Street—The Cellar—and 302A N. Main Street—previously The Record Exchange (1999) and currently The Cellar Store (2010).

¹⁰Nolan House at 222 Progress Street NE: This was originally listed twice but after comprehensive research there was no survey for a second structure so the second listing was moved to the “Additional Information on 1999 Adopted Contributing Structures” list. Additionally, this structure used to be a duplex-type rental property.

¹³Gertrude Perdue Bell House at 503 Progress Street NE: The address was changed from 505 Progress Street NE to 502 Progress Street NE.

¹⁴Charles Perdue House at 505 Progress Street NE: The address was changed from 507 Progress Street NE to 505 Progress Street NE.

¹⁶Margaret Beeks House at 508 Progress Street NE: The Margaret Beeks House was originally listed three times, once as 506 Progress Street and twice as 508 Progress Street. As of July 2010, the Margaret Beeks House with the DHR ID#150-0080 is a multi-family structure with the address 506-508 Progress Street. Two Margaret Beeks

House listings were moved to the “Additional Information on 1999 Adopted Contributing Structures” list. Additionally, it was confirmed that at one point Retha and William Wohlford rented and lived in the multi-family structure.

¹⁸Presbyterian Manse at 112 E. Roanoke Street: This address was changed from 115 Roanoke Street to 112 Roanoke Street.

¹⁹House at 210 E. Roanoke Street: This structure was listed twice. After comprehensive research no second structure was identifiable on the property as of 2010. There was a reference to a shed at the rear of the house and an addition to the rear of the house. It is undetermined if the shed was demolished or part of the addition to the house. The second listing was moved to the “Additional Information on 1999 Adopted Contributing Structures” list.

²⁰Viola Camper House at 306 Washington Street SE: The address changed from 307 Washington Street SW to 306 Washington Street SE.

²¹Carrington-Lybrook House at 203 Washington Street SW: The address was changed from 300 Draper Road to 203 Washington Street SW.

²²W.B. Conway Drugstore/House at 117 N. Main Street: It burned down circa 2002.

²³Woolhouse Storage at 105 Penn Street NE: It was demolished.

²⁴Blacksburg Jail at 203 Progress Street NE: It was demolished.

²⁵Robinson House at 401 Wilson Avenue: It was demolished.
